New Staff
Ms Iman Balla	A member of the Masters Graduate Program at Melbourne University, Iman comes with impressive experience in leadership, state athletics and medicine.
Mr Amer Ibrahim Basha	A lead teacher at his previous school with VCE Examiner, Amer has teaching experience in Science and Mathematics.
Ms Jane Barnes	Jane returns in a P/T capacity in Term 2 following her maternity leave.
Mr Josh Frederick	A lead teacher from Victoria's south-east region, Josh joins SCG with significant experience in the independent school sector.
Mr Dean Galea	Dean has completed a substantial period of relief teaching during 2018 at SCG and is well-known to many of our students.
Ms Eleanor Horton	Eleanor is a highly-credentialed VCE teacher who is also a VCAA Examiner.
Ms Jessica Owen	Jessica is another very experienced VCE Mathematics teacher, who worked with specialist and enhancement students as well as teacher improvement at her last school.
Ms Shannen Spiteri	Shannen will be one of our youngest members of staff in 2019—she impressed all with her enthusiasm and commitment during her interview.
Ms Helen Vaughan	A lead teacher, Helen facilitated improved practices in teaching and learning during her most recent appointment.
Mr Jol Watson	Returning to Australia after teaching overseas, Jol is well-versed in the independent school sector, and will work with our MS and SS students in Languages and Humanities.

Departing and On Leave Staff
Ms Amy Bickford	Amy commenced as a teacher with SCG in 2012. We congratulate Amy on securing an opportunity that will further expand her experience and leadership.
Mr Tarik Kendjer	Tarik has reluctantly tendered his resignation from SCG, and we thank him for his work during 2018 and wish him every success with what is an important family move.
Ms Rozie McKerrow	Rozie will relocate to the outer-eastern region of Melbourne next year. We will miss her smiling, warm manner with our youngest students.
Ms Gabrielle Robinson	Gabrielle has undertaken several contract roles for SCG during 2018, and we have benefited from this input. We wish her future success within the teaching industry next year.
Ms Kirsten Smart	A foundation member of staff, Kirsten has after eight years at SCG secured a lead teacher role, and we warmly commend her on this position which will introduce further leadership opportunities.
Ms Trudy Trounson	Trudy has approved Leave without Pay during the 2019 school year and we extend best wishes to her.
