Classification	Teacher, Southern Cross Grammar Enterprise Agreement 2023
Salary	In accordance with years of experience and level of responsibility

Overview

Southern Cross Grammar's Primary School provides a dynamic and relational learning environment grounded in evidence-based teaching and cognitive science. Our learning model prioritises explicit instruction in literacy and numeracy with inquiry-based learning tailored to each developmental stage. Through our dispositions, we nurture agency and high performance in every student. We are a connected community where expertise, belonging, and restorative practices ensure student growth, wellbeing, and bright futures. We support our students in their endeavours and nurture their friendships as they move through the Primary School.

Key Aspects of the Role

Developmental Pedagogy and Learning

- Demonstrate expertise in applying evidence-based pedagogy, integrating insights from cognitive science (including cognitive load theory, attention theory, and the science of learning)
- Deliver explicit instruction in foundational literacy and numeracy while embedding inquiry models
- Work collaboratively with colleagues to develop programs and initiatives that support the academic growth of each student and create opportunities for quality learning experiences
- Develop and review the curriculum, resources, feedback and assessment practices and targeted teaching and learning strategies across programs
- Ensure that a sound knowledge of emerging trends in educational theory, learning theory, learning technology, student achievement, assessment and methodologies underpins all learning and teaching across programs.

Student Care

- Know your students – understanding a student's physical, psychological and emotional developmental stages from an evidence-based perspective
- Promote a safe, inclusive, and restorative environment where student achievements are celebrated, learning dispositions are fostered, and every child feels valued and connected
- Model restorative practices to address conflict, build relationships, and support wellbeing alongside academic growth
- Encourage a positive environment, where achievements are celebrated, each student feels valued, and a sense of belonging and connectedness is created for all
- Model authentic and meaningful conversations with members of our community, adopting a restorative approach in addressing issues of conflict as required
- Collaborate with the Deputy Head of Primary, Head of Inclusive Education, School Psychologist and other teachers to ensure the support of students with additional needs and/or at-risk students

Communication and Connection

- Build strong collaborative relationships with students, colleagues, and families while actively engaging with universities, industries, and global partners to extend learning beyond the classroom
- Prioritise transparent communication and purposeful collaboration to enhance student learning, wellbeing, and future readiness
- Regularly communicate with parents/guardians to assist them in supporting their child's academic growth and wellbeing
- Work closely with colleagues in the provision of a challenging, balanced, relevant and differentiated curriculum for students across programs
- Collaborate with the Deputy Head of Primary and Head of Inclusive Education to plan for and provide data on individual student academic, social and behavioral progress
- Actively build professional networks with key external partners and professional associations
- Engage in Professional Learning
- Attend all staff meetings.
